

Your real estate agent has advised the National Australia Bank Limited ("the National") that you have agreed to pay your rent using National RentCard. This Direct Debit Request will be used by the National to debit your account for the purpose of collecting your rent. Under separate arrangements, the National will pass on your rent to your real estate agent.

Section E - (Tenant to complete)

Before you can use National RentCard to make your rental payments, you must firstly nominate an Access Code. We will use this Code to link the payments you make under this Direct Debit Request with the property you are renting. For security reasons, it is very important that both you and we keep your Access Code confidential. For this reason, you should not disclose your Access Code to anyone else, including your real estate agent.

Once you have inserted your Access Code in the space provided below, please separate and insert this section of your Direct Debit Request in the envelope provided to you by your real estate agent. Ensure the envelope is sealed by you before returning it to the agent.

The agent will then forward the sealed envelope to the National for establishment.
